Cigarettes and Chocolate - Daily Info

From this simple yet original premise, Anthony Minghella's Cigarettes and Chocolate draws back the layers of façade that colour our every conversation and discourse, highlighting the deterioration of language from an honest means of communication to an instrument of deceit. Although a typical product of late-1980s Thatcherite culture, director Emily Galvin's production at the ADC succeeds in planting Minghella's play firmly in the 21st century.
